Merry Christmas and Happy Holidays to all our members!

In this season of joy, hope and recognition of all the blessings we have, the Board of Directors wishes to express our appreciation to all who are part of our center.

The heart and strength of our Wells Ogunquit Senior Center is, and has always been, our members. Participation in all we do, offering the most amazing volunteer force in any organization in our region, support for each other and sharing of time, energy and skills for the benefit of all -creates that strength that keeps our center a lively, successful and fun place to be.
Thank you, members.

Leading all we do together, keeping our many events and programs in place and on schedule, solving daily concerns, reaching out and working with community leaders, greeting members every day and introducing new members to our center, is our energizing Director, Rita Sevigny.
Thank you, Rita.

Our newest staff member, doing the much needed member data base updates, dealing with the many background office management duties, managing our placemat and newsletter ad, and organizing our mass mailing program, is our recently hired Office Manager, Barbara Switzer.
Thank you, Barbara.

It is with our deepest gratitude for all who make this organization and our center community shine as brightly as it does, that our full Board thanks you and wishes you the best Holiday season ever.

Sincerely,
The Wells Ogunquit Senior Center Board of Directors

Kathy Chase, Chair, Larry Dyer, Vice Chair, Peter Kahn, Financial Administrator, George Hersom, Bingo Director, JoAnn DeClercq, Chair of Grant Writing Team, Ray Farnham, Past Chair

Volunteer of the Month: Meet Taryn Allen

Taryn has been a Center Member since 2006. Over the past seventeen years, Taryn has covered the Reception Desk, kept the library in order, she's quite involved with game night on Tuesdays along with Dominos on Friday afternoons.

Taryn is right on the ball when it comes to assisting members and visitors, with her friendly disposition and smile. She's a wonderful access to the front desk. Taryn volunteers twice a week on Monday and Wednesday mornings at the front desk. When you come to the Center, be sure to thank her for stepping into the role - when we needed the assistance.
Thank you, Taryn
