What does Valentine’s Day mean to you? I think of people being kind to one another, having integrity and keeping their word. So many of us are experiencing such disorder, confusion and loneliness during the winter months. Please remember to reach out to someone you’ve lost contact with because a simple card or phone call can cheer someone up tremendously. Days of Warming is one example of being able to meet other members of our community. Please thank our Sponsors and Musicians for they are giving of their time and talents—with no cost to our members. We do have donation jars and 50/50 raffles giving you an opportunity to give back.

On a daily basis I see how Members are coming out and enjoying each other’s company here at the Center. Our Community sponsors have been very generous to our Senior Center.

Currently I’m receiving calls from our Community to be able to introduce their organizations to our Members. The first event will be a Valentine Cocktail Party on February 10th, 2-4pm. We are asking for $2 donation at sign up - this will give the organizations a number so they can plan on appetizers and drinks. Each person will receive two tickets for wine at no cost for a drink or appetizers. This event is sponsored by 207 Prime Properties of Wells, ME.

Dick, Sherri, Chris Varano ~
We cannot start the New Year off without a HUGE thank you to the Varano family. Their generosity over the years has raised thousands and thousands of dollars for our Center, and they continue to give again and again. We are so very fortunate to have them as part of our Community, and we wish them all the best in their future endeavors.

Thank you from our Board of Directors, Staff & Members.
