November 2022 WOCAM Newsletter Volume 21, Issue 11

In accordance with Federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, the USDA, its Agencies, offices, and employees, and institutions participating in or administering USDA programs are prohibited from discriminating based on race, color, national origin, religion, sex, gender identity (including gender expression), sexual orientation, disability, age, marital status, family/parental status, income derived from a public assistance program, political beliefs, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity, in any program or activity conducted or funded by USDA (not all bases apply to all programs). To file a complaint of discrimination write to USDA, Director, Office of Adjudication and Compliance, 1400 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20250-9410 or call (800)-795-3272 (voice) or (202)-720-6382 (TDD). USDA is an equal opportunity provider and employer."

Message from Rita—the Director

Our Senior Center is so important
Members have found true friendship by participating in different volunteer opportunities or programs.
Friendship is better than isolation.
Come on in and check out something that would interest you.

The poem below reminds me of how important our Senior Center is to our Community and our Community also recognizes this too.

There's this little thing called friendship.
I experience it every day,
And I will always be thankful that I have friends,
Because they have helped me along the way.

A friend is a flashlight in the dark,
A rainbow after the storm,
The sunshine after a cold, damp day,
The glue when you are torn.

I have friends I love like sisters.
(I know they love me too.)
They'll be there through thick and thin,
For I know their friendship is true.
