Ides of Winter Greetings everyone!

YES! Halfway through the snow season already and we, on the Board, hope all our members are staying warm, cozy and healthy! As most of you know our Center is doing all it can to be open for members who want to see friends, are comfortable to join us - safely- and who enjoy the games, exercises, events, camaraderie or just want to sit among friends and read. Because of YOU and our VOLUNTEERS, The Board is happy to report that the Center is doing well, and our finances are stable enough to continue to provide the wonderful environment of our center to members and guests who want to come.

We are working our way through what is likely to be several more months of caution in living our lives to the fullest, and the Board is doing its due diligence to put the new budget together, maintain our facility, pay our amazing staff, and see to our members' needs. We thank you for your understanding and cooperation- and most importantly your support.

If there is any information you need about our center or what is happening in our community, please do not hesitate to ask Rita or any of the Board members and we will find the answers- or explain why we cannot!

"Virtual Hugs" to all!

A Message from the Director—Rita Sevigny:

As we approach the month of February, I find myself reflecting back 40 years when I was 19 years old and thought I had the world by the tail.

My husband and I married on Valentine's Day so many years ago, and yet it seems like yesterday. Our initial wedding date was set for May but when we realized that Valentine's Day fell on a Saturday we changed the date. (What do you expect everyone was thinking when we did that? LOL. We didn't have our first born until 5 years later.)

For years I have complained about our wedding anniversary being on Valentine's Day because it's difficult find a place to stay, or go out to eat, unless you plan way in advance. So, my husband and I usually celebrate later in the year. Looking back we should of kept the May date. I also realized through the years I gyped myself out of an Valentine gifts. Oh well...

What does Valentine's Day mean to you? I think of people being kind to one another, having integrity and keeping their word. So many of us are experiencing such disorder, confusion and loneliness during this pandemic. Please remember to reach out to someone you've lost contact with because a simple card or phone call can cheer someone up tremendously.

On a daily basis I see how WOCAM Members are venturing out and enjoying each other's company here at the Center—using precautions of course, which is so very important. I do hope in the very near future I will be able to meet you all.

The Center was very fortunate to be the recipient of the generosity of an anonymous donor which has allowed us to see a few more of you come by to take advantage of the paid lunches (100). The donator requested that we bless local restaurants who, in turn, bless our Members. The meals will continue throughout March or as long as the money is still available. This opportunity is for Members only. If you know of someone who may be considering becoming a member, please share the different opportunities your membership brings you.

Hopefully, in the very near future, we will be back to normal. Please stay safe and well. ~Rita
